How is Parā Śakti related to the phenomenal world and especially to the man with Sankoca-limitation ? The Lalitāsahasrānāmastotram has been able to solve this philosophic problem on the empirical and transcendental side on the basis of Cit-Śakti—Consciousness and Bhavana-meditative aspect on 'mantra-yantra-tantra'.

The experience of man speaks that the origination is possible with the union of male and female principle. The idea of the unity of Śiva and Śakti are always equal and identical, but may be viewed differently to suit the psyche of devotees. Benign mother Lalitā is 'Śivaśakyaikarūpinī'.

Lalitā is Sāmarasya-parāyanā—the principle of unchanging unity and harmony. Kashmiri Śaktas are traditionally the worshippers of Śrī Yantra and the experiencers of Mātrkāpūjanam. The immutable phonemes begin with अ and end with ह, thus evolving into अहं—the higher consciousness.

Mother Lalitā is immutable in the form of Varṇamāla—the eternal garland of phonemes. In the world of name and form Lalitā in her emotional aspect continues the process of creation through Mātrkā—or the Supernal 'Śabda brahman'. The emotion of Lalitā is impregnated with the three hṛms of Lajjabīja. Hṛm is the evolutionary aspect of the Divine Lalitā.

Dr. Raina has tried to deal with the subject matter of this sacred Sahsrānāma from Kashmir Śakta view point.

She wears the diadem of precious stones and a crescent is shining wonderfully on it. She is easily accessible with her benign smile. Her children get an inexhaustible store of ‘life-milk’ in her full breast. She has vessel of honey in one hand and the red lotus in the other. It symbolises joy and wisdom. PREFACE

A nice exposition of the devotional philosophy is found in the 'Sri Lalitasahasranama Stotram'. The Supreme Mother Lalita is adored with the thousand divine Names, Conveying a 'journey of Consciousness' from Sri Mata to 'Sri Lalitambika'. This is a highly occult Shakta Scripture and forms a section of the 'Brahmanda Purana'; and is regarded as the most sacred text by the followers of 'Sri Vidya' cult of the Shakta tradition. Being highly mystic in 'Svarupa' - primal nature, its grand and subtle 'mantra' is imparted to the initiated only by the Guru. The 'bijaksara' is the 'Panchadashaksari mantra' with fifteen syllabled mantra.

This 'Sahasranama' is a systemised composition of the 'Purvabhaga', 'Nyasa', 'Sahasranama stotra', 'Uttarnyasa' and 'Uttarbhaga' or prologue, placement of the deities, thousand divine names, post placement of the deities and epilogue. The 'Purvabhaga' starts with a humble submission from Agastya to the 'Ashvanana the Lord incarnatae, for the revelation of the manifestation of the Mother-creatix when she commissioned herself to kill 'Bhandasura'. Sage Agastya was very particular to know the description of 'Sripuram' and the glory of the 'Panchadashakshari mantra'. The sage was also eager to know the mystery of 'Chakraraja vidya' of 'Sri Devi', and other allied system of 'Homa' and 'Homadravya' - Sacrifice and its ingredients.

In this sacred search for 'Truth', 'Sri Hayagriva' cautions the sage to have full devotion and concentration, on his words glorifying the 'Sahasranama'. Certain injunctions were also incorporated by Sri Hayagriva Himself about imparting its sacred knowledge to a 'Shatha' - deceitful, Dusta-cunning and 'Avishvasin' - man without faith. The Sahasranama should be listened to and heard with absolute faith leaving no room for 'Avidya-ignorance', 'Bhakti' and 'Kirtan' are the two essentials of realising the Highest Truth of the Mother. The 'Japan' - repetition of the sacred mantra and 'Archana' - recitation of the Names, have been emphasised and authorised. 'Vagdevivasini' were bestowed with Grace to listen to the Glory of Sahsranama, as told by Sri Lalita Herself to them.

The 'Nyasa' starts with 'Vashni-adi-vag devata' as the Rishis of the Lalitasahasranama. The metre is Anushtup, Sri Lalita Tripura-Sundari is the Devata. Aim Srimadvagbhava Kuta is the 'bijam', Klim madhya kuta is the Shakti, Sauh Shaktikuta is the Kilakam. Bijam is seed, Shakti is power and Kilakam is the 'nail' of the Stotram. 'Dhyanam' is of the 'Mula Prakrti' - Primordial nature. 'Nyasa' means to invite and place the Devata in its particular position in the devotees ownself. Devata assumes the 'Mantra' form as the scripture says: 'Mantra in the Deva'. The 'Karanyasa and Anganyasa makes the Devata abide in the hands and the parts of the body. The Devatas abide in the heart, head, skull, eyes and function as 'Kavacham' - the armour of the body and makes all the directions safe leading to 'Bhu, Bhuva and Svah' from the origin, where the devotee and deity are knit together through 'Mantra'.

After meditating upon the glory of Sri Lalita, who is of the form of 'Sindura and Aruna', the formal 'Puja' is followed with the 'gandham, varieties of flowers, dhupam, dipam, amrtmanaivaidhyam and Sarvopcharas'. These are the physical manifestations of the Divine in the form of 'Prithvi - the earthly existence with 'gandha' - colours; 'Akasa' - space with pushpani flowers; 'Vayu' - wind with 'dhupam' or incense, 'Vahni' fire with burning lamp. Amrtam - ambrosia with naivedhyam presents, offering of fruits, cereals and 'Sarvatmika'-integrated elements. These, physical constituents in the worship of Lalita are in the form of mystic phonemes of 'Lam, Ham, Yam, Ram, Vam and Sam'. The meaning and subtle nature of these phonemes are known to the initiated only.

The Sahsranama is a chain of 13 divine episodes in the following manner, comprising the Names and Forms of Sri Lalita :

| Title | Sloka | Name Namavali |
|---|-----------|---------------|
| 1. Sri Maturvatarah Incarnation of Sri Mata | 1 - 21 | 1 - 54 |
| 2. Sri Nagarvarmana city description | 22 - 23 | 55 - 63 |
| 3. Bhandasurvadhah killing of Bhandasura | 24 - 33 | 64 - 83 |
| 4. Mantrarupah formation of mantra | 34 - 35 | 84 - 87 |
| 5. Kundlinirupah formation of serpent coil | 36-40 | 88 - 111 |
| 6. Bhaktanugrahaah compassion over devotees | 41 - 42 | 112 - 125 |
| 7. Nirgunopasana worship of formless | 43 - 50 | 126 - 192 |
| 8. Sagunopasana worship of the manifest | 51 - 60 | 193 - 248 |
| 9. Pancabrahmasvarupah Five fold formation of Brahma | 61 - 75 | 249 - 340 |
| 10. Kshetrakshetrajnarupah formation of kshetraobject, kshetrajna - subject | 76 - 81 | 341 - 372 |
| 11. Pithaniangadevatasea Pittias and angas of Devata | 82 - 97 | 373 - 474 |
| 12. Yogininyasa Placement of Yoginis | 98 - 109 | 475 - 532 |
| 13. Vibhativistara Extension of Vibhutis | 110 - 183 | 533 - 1000 |

These thirteen episodes represent a journey of Consciousness from Sri Mata to Sri Lalitambika. The Sahsrara of the Supreme Yoga finds its effulgence in these Divine Names. The glory of the Divine Mother is manifest in her Incarnations, description of Sri Nagar, killing of Bhandasura, Mantra form, Kundalini form, Divine grace on the devotees, worship of the 'Absolute, worship of the Manifest, the nature of five fold cosmic principles. The formation of deities with their jurisdiction, the Shakti pithas - seats of Mother Lalita with the host of body guards (Matrkas abiding in the Universal Body); placement of yogini in the micro-macroself, and lastly the complete manifestation and the unification and methodology of the worship.

The Uttarabhaga-epilogue of the Sahsranama throws light on the merits of the recital and worship of Sri Lalita. In the concluding Sloka of the Uttarbhaga Srisuta says that Lord Hayagriva meditated upon Sri Lalitambika, and His heart was filled with Divine Bliss and continued to live in that Supreme ecstasy.

The Sahsranama has been styled in a descriptive and narrative form. The Supreme Effulgence of Sri Lalita is seen in every Name. Her radiance is highly superb. Her Manifestation is the Universal play. She is the Benign Mother who grants the Supreme 'Nivratti' - liberation and 'Pravriti' - the attachment. The scripture says: 'Sadanandapuma vatmaiva paradevata Lalita' one's own self is the source of eternal bliss and Lalita is the Supreme Mother in one's own Atman self.

Acknowledgement

I, the humble devotee of Sri Lalita acknowledge with great reverence the guidance received by me from my father Pandit Niranjan Nath Raina, a traditionalist scholar and Bhakta of Mahatripurasundari-Sri Lalita. Under his instructions the literal translation of Sri Lalitasahasranamavali was undertaken by me. I have included the fascimlo of the first page of Sri Lalitasahasranama written by him in the Sharda script - the ancient script of Kashmir.

I with all humility express that I have been benefitted with the commentary as Sri Lalita Sahsranama published by the Adyar Library and Research Centre, Madras and the Tapavanam series of the Sri Ramakrishna Tapovanam, Tirupparaitturai.

I thank Dr. Satkari Mukhopadhyaya a renowned Sanskrit scholar, the main guiding and illumination force for getting this work published under his care and supervision.

I record the help rendered by Dr. Dev Sharma Vedalankar of Dayanand College, Ajmer, in this work.

Pandit Jagannath Sibū of Kashmir Shakta tradition has given the ritualistic meaning of certain mantras, which I have fairly used.

I also thank M/s. Sharada Publishing House for getting it published.

Introduction

Lalita abides in the heart

'Lalita abides in the heart', says Brahma to Markandeya in the Devikavacham! Lalita is the divine Mother, whose heart throbs for the life process. Lalita is the 'Mother of Synthesis' as defined in the Lalitopakhyana an appendage to the Brahmanda Purana. Lalita is Durga, who is worshipped by the Shaktas. She is all emotion, whose sweet face represents the 'Vagbhava' group of mantric syllables. She captures the secret heart-beat of delight, with her Eternal smile. She is the golden sight, who comes down into the heart of the devotees smitting the life with Supreme eternity. The secret name lies in her Eternal attributes which reside in six lotuses in the form of 'Kundalini'. She is not different from the knowledge that brings 'Moksha' - liberation to the bonded soul or 'Jivatman'.

Higher emotion is the primal cause of existence, known as 'Bhavajna'. Being the Supreme energy, she is meditated upon with the loving adoration. Her abode is the Sri Yantra, when adored as Sri Rajrajeshvari. Her feet are the 'musical metres and the Vedic-Nirukhta is her Lovely face. The Rigveda is her seat. The Yaju and Sam are her thighs. Nyaya and Darshan are the two breasts. The Shruti and Smriti are the lips. The poetics is Her Charming tongue. The Vedanta and other allied subjects are Her eternal eyes, which guides the 'Bhakta' - devotees through intuition, understanding and insight. Her ecstasy is found in 'Gayan, Vadan and Nritya' — song, music and dance.

Lalita is always adored by Ishvara, Sadashiva and a host of Devatas. She is the Mother-Creatrix and the very self of "Satcit-ananda"-truth-consciousness-bliss.

Lalita is the primal source of 'Para, Pashyanti and Madhyama. She is the infinite 'Vaikhari', born from the silence of Eternity. This state of existence is Prakasha and Vimarsha. Her Divine flow is spontaneous. Icha, Kriya and Jnan are Her Manifestatism in the living heart. According to the Shakta school, there is only one Reality, where Transcendental, Absolute, Immutable, Ineffable Lalita is known as Prakasha - Supreme Effulgence, which contains in itself the seed of consciousness. When it vibrates to manifest of itself, a movement or Icha takes place. This deliberation is known as 'Vimarsha' - reflection. The Kamakala-vilas says that Vimarsha is the reflection of the mirror of Prakasha. The Prakasha and Vimarsha are the Shiva and Shakti aspects of Sri Lalita.

She manifests through the 'Mula trikuna' known as 'Sarvasiddhi-prada chakra' of Lalitambika. The primary triangle is the eternal flame with the 'tejas' of Surya — the solar energy, the 'Soma tattva' — lunar effects and 'Agni' — physical fire. The triadic of 'tejas' are Her three eyes representing the Universal incarnation. She is verily the Vidyavati - the physical, Meta-physical and transcendental knowledge of the triadic mysticism of the Shakti cult. Her charm, glory and silence is seen in the Primal 'Bindu', which is being meditated upon as 'Trikhanda mudra' by the Shodasi worshippers of Sri Lalita. Perception and emotion make Lalita to abide in Sri Chakra where the 'Mula-bindu' is Her heart region. A compassion leans to embrace the physical constituents of 'Jivatman' to make the life cycle a complete one.

Ever gracious Lalita is visualised in the multiple faces of Universal consciousness. Her ways are mysterious, diverse and ever blooming. She is super brilliance, who upholds the mystery of the emotional play. She is fertile and her Emotion is the cosmic union of Kameshvara and Kameshvari. She is Shiva and Shakti, possessed with the singular supreme love. She is the whole, where every part and particle finds its abode in Her. She is self and beyond that, who is meditated upon as the 'Swatantrya Shakti', as visualised by Shiva the Supreme teacher of 'Tandava-nritya' — the cosmic dance. His dance makes the rhythm of Time in its movement, but Lalita transcends the cosmic whirl of Time and is hid in it like a pearl in the sea. She is the Supreme Sovereign, with the authority of 'Chaitanya' - consciousness of Being. With her Emotional appearance, she is the fountain head of the nectar of consciousness. Emotion is her primal vibration known as 'Spanda' - which is the source of all creation. She creates and sustains the world with her Love and then makes the world merge in the Higher ego. Filled with compassion, she is fashioned within the heart by Her intellect. Her presence is felt in the heart-cavern. Yogis meditate upon her to realize the infinite digit of immortality. Her song is auspicious with the tune of universal vibration.

The immutable phonemes begin with 'A and end with H'. The great Divine Mother, Lalita is immutable in the form of 'Varnamala' the garland of letters. In this world of name and form, she continues the process of creation through 'Matrikas - the supernal 'Shabda-Brahman'. In the form of languages, she is known as Akshara. Each syllable is potent with her Divine attribute. As Lalita bears and sustains Primal seed in her womb, so all the 'Devas' and 'Matrikas' seed alphabets are the basis of all the 'Mantras' - seed syllables. The seed syllables are occult in nature. The 'Jnanarnava Tantra' states that the sixteen vowels found in the 'Deva Vani' - Sanskrit are a form of Sakti, while the letters beginning with 'क' -ka and ending with 'क्ष' -ksha are the forms of 'Shiva'. The consonents can not be articulated by themselves unless they are in consonance with the vowels. The emotion of Lalita is impregnated with the force of the 'Trayi-vidya', made up of the letters of the three 'Kutas', which are adored with the three 'Hrim's' or 'Lajja bija'. Hrim means that the 'Vaikhari' has not come out fully in the open, there is some 'Sankocha' known as a shrinking. 'Hrim bija' is the evolutionary aspect of the Divine.

There are three Hrim's in the Mantra, one at the end of each 'Kuta'. The three kutas are triadic in nature and represent the existence of triune - 'Paramatman, Jagat and Jivatman' - God, world and soul. The three kutas are 'Srimadvagbhava kuta, Madhya kuta and Shaktikuta', where Lalita is the presiding deity of the microcosm and macrocosm. Hrim enjoys the identical status of 'Pranava'. Hrim is ethereal existence, illumination and will. It stands for 'Nadabindu', 'Shabda-brahman' or 'Akshara-brahma'. It is the primal digit to evolve into Absolute, and to involve in the number. The adoration of the Hrim leads to the ultimate destiny, where Tripurasundari-Lalita administers the bliss of realization. Hrim is a process of transformation of 'Jiva' into 'Deva' and 'Jiva' into 'jivanmukta'. All the attributes of Lalita are inherent in Hrim. A yogi experiences bliss in terms of 'Ichha, Jnan and Kriya', working under the influence of Lalita, who abides in the 'Ashtasiddhis' of the 'Vasu Kuna' where all the perfections lead to one supreme goal of Lalita's love.

Lalita is all excitement, who lives in the 'Samaya', devoted to the conduct of the 'Samaya chara', who presides over the 'Hum' seed syllable. She embodies the universe in Her golden womb. Her tune is the 'Vina' of Sarasvati, which brings harmony of rhythm and rhyme, power of speech and thought, idea and performance. Conception, Right faith, Right intelligence and Perfection are Her names. She has one thousand attributes, which grants the perfect knowledge of immanence and transcendence. Lalita is beyond 'Varna and Ashrama', yet maintains the law of piety. Her 'Varna' is Supreme love and is easily approached by those, who have the unconditional faith in her Divine play. She is free from name and form, yet endowed with names and forms. She abides in the 'Dashara' - ten spokes of the cosmic wheel of 'Sri-chakra.'

The Eternal knowledge, Allied knowledge are her Names. She is whole-compassion. She is ever charming, grand and utters the eternal sound 'AUM', which grants power to Brahma for creation, Vishnu for preservation and Rudra for annihilation to make the cosmic show a complete one. She is Eternal time, and consumes the serial time in her Lap. She abides in every nerve and cell of Shiva, where she illumines the spirit of Shiva by accepting Him as Her very Self. She is the embodiment of Yakini, Hakini, Dakini, Rakini, Lakini, Kakini and Sakini Devis. Love, Emotion, excitement are her psychic energies.

She transcends action and inaction. She shines among the 'Kula' system and is worshipped through the 'Kadi' mantra, the first letter of this seed-syllable of the Pancadasi mantra. Her expansion is vast, who maintains the harmony of the 'Triadic mysticism' of 'Shiva-Shakti-anu' and 'Mahakali, Mahalakshmi, Mahasarasvati'. Being the compassionate Mother, she bestows, grace to the 'Matrikas' - little mothers. Being Gayatri, as Mother of Vedas, she holds all scriptures in her Lap. Great substance is found in Her. She is the Cosmic breath of yoga and Her manifestation is seen in the fourteen triangles of Sri-Yantra.

Her Eternal love is filled with her Eternal grace, which is without beginning or end. She is all beauty found in the Primal figure. Her seat is the primal triangle of Sri Yantra, and is revered with 'Yoni mudra'. She manifests for the work of 'Devas', born from the alter of the fire of consciousness. Her supramental consciousness is to save the world from 'Avidya' - ignorance. As saviour of the 'Devas' - divine forces, she assumes the characteristics of Para shakti, where She makes the cosmic energies to concentrate in one unified energy. She assumes the form of 'Mahalakshmi' - Adya-shakti, and the 'Devas' adore her Feet with 'Lakhsarasa', and thus make the triple world - 'Bhu, Bhuv, Svaha' dance to her Tune. She takes 'Hari and Hara' in her lap to help in maintaining the balance between emotion and intellect. She is the Supreme intuition, who abides in the sixteen petalled lotus of Sri-chakra.

She is the embodiment of 'Panchadashakshri and Shodasi' mantra and of 'Hadi vidya and Kadi vidya'. She is occult yet seen with devotion and from the original Throb which in its subtle form is Light. Her each mystic syllable evolves, with the rise of the moon in the 'Shukla paksha' - lunar fortnight and is meditated upon on the 'Purnima' as the Moon is just a cosmic beauty of her Appearance. She is Universal seer, who imparts the sacred knowledge of 'Tripura Sundari' mantra to reconstitute the perfect word or 'Akshara'. She therefore, resides in the Shodasi mantra. Her grace is a flow and her face is deeply aglow with ambrosia. To bestow prosperity is one of her Functions and as Vaishnavi she abides in Vibhava - wealth and final beauty, closely related to Aksharabrahma.

Lalita is the Supreme authority and discharges her Eternal function through Brahmi, Vaishnavi and Raudri Shakti. She abides in the form of 'Sahasra' - the thousand spokes of the mystic lotus. She is material existence of 'Navadvipas' - nine continents and Saptasindhus - seven oceans. She is the source light of the sun and her Radiance is far exalted. The brilliance of thousand of solar galaxies can not excel her Triadic beauty.

Being 'Vagdevi', she is adored as 'Varnamayi Ambika'. She is the 'Mantra' and not different from it. This 'Rahasya' - secret knowledge is known as 'Tripura Sundari Karuna' - the compassion of the Mother. Peace, Force, Light and Delight are constantly experienced in Her 'Mantra'. The secret of great achievement is revealed only through the Grace of Lalita. Lalita is a source of inspiration and transformation.

Auspiciousness, Beauty and Emotion are her Female characteristics being appreciated in the 'Agamas'. She is also triple-footed with Triple knowledge and Triple image, who resides in the 'Tripura' — the city of triple image. She envelops the whole creation in the 'Muladhara' triangle, which is the affirmation of the essential spirit. 'Tripura-Sundari' is the spirit of 'Purna Yoga'. The three circles of Sri Chakra are the forms of mind, over-mind and supermind. Being 'Anadi' - beginningless in 'Svarupa' - primal form, there is no end to Her attributes, yet She abides in the Sri Yantra.

A nine-fold classification is adopted to comprehend the symbolism of the Sri Yantra, where 'Tripura, Tripureshi, Tripurasundari, Tripuravasini, Tripurashri, Tripuramalini, Tripurasiddha, Tripurambika and Mahatripurasundari' are adored as the nine Presiding Devis. Lalita is one is all and All is one.

To bow to Sri Lalita, who abides in the heart region, is the keen desire of the devotees, who feel Her presence in every pulsation of life. She is splendidly graceful and incites primordial nature and transmigratory jivas at the beginning of every new cycle of creation.

O Kumbhaja-Agastya! "Verily, there exist the millions of Devi Sahasranamas. Of them, the supreme one happens to be Dashavidham Namasahasram....,

71. गङ्गा भवानी गायत्री काली लक्ष्मीसरस्वती ।
राजराजेश्वरी बाला श्यामला ललिता दश ॥

Which serially are the Ganga, Bhavani, Gayatri, Kali, Lakshmi, Sarasvati, Rajarajeshvari, Bala, Shyamala and Lalita all ten in number.

72. रहस्यानामसाहस्रमिदं शस्तं दशस्वपि ।
तस्मात् सङ्कीर्तयेन्नित्यं कलिदोषनिवृत्तये ॥

Of these 'Dashavidha Sahasranamas', this Rahasyanama Sahasram excels in every aspect. To remove the stains of sins of the Kaliyuga, you should invariably perform the 'Namakirtanam' of this highly occult Sahasranama.

73. मुखं श्रीमातृनामेति न जानन्ति विमोहिताः ।
विष्णुनामपराः केचिच्छिवनामपराः परे ॥

Deluded persons are not conversant with the name of Sri Mata as being the Chief one. Among them, some consider the name of Vishnu and others the name of Shiva Superior to in the transcendental nature.

74. न कश्चिदपि लोकेषु ललितानामतत्परः ।
येनान्यदेवतानाम कीर्तितं जन्मकोटिषु ॥

There is no, of course, any other name superior to the name of sacred Lalita in all the worlds. Whosoever has performed the kirtanam of other Devatas in millions of births...,

75. तस्यैव भवति श्रद्धा श्रीदेवीनामकीर्तने ।
चरमे जन्मनि यथा श्रीविद्योपासको भवेत् ॥

He alone is attuned with 'Shradha' in the 'Nama-kirtanam' of Sri Devi. The devotee becomes correspondingly the same Upasaka of Sri Vidya...,

76. नामसाहस्रपाठश्च तथा चरमजन्मनि ।
यथैव विरला लोके श्रीविद्यार्चनवेदिनः ॥

Who has done the 'patham' of 'Namasahasra' in the last birth. As the knowers of Sri Vidya happen to be very few in this world...,

77. तथैव विरला गुह्यनामसाहस्रपाठकाः ।
मन्त्रराजजपश्चैव चक्रराजार्चनं तथा ॥

So are very few, who recite the secret and highly occult Sahasranamas and also the japam of Mantraraja and the archana of Chakraraja.

78. रहस्यनामपाठश्च नात्पस्य तपसः फलम् ।
अपठन् नामसाहस्रं प्रीणयेद्यो महेश्वरीम् ॥

The recital of this occult Sahasranama is not the merit of a little tapasya. He who recites this 'Namasahasra' without emotional attachment of Maheshvari...,

79. स चक्षुषा विना रूपं पश्येदेव विमूढधीः ।
रहस्यानामसाहस्रं न्यक्त्वा यः सिद्धिकामुकः ॥

Verily, he is a dull person, who is seeing the form without eyes. He who leaves the occult Sahasranama and is bent upon to have his desires fulfilled...,

80. यां भोजनं विना नूनं क्षुन्नित्वृत्तिमभीप्सति ।
यां भक्तो ललितादेव्याः स नित्यं कीर्तयेदिदम् ॥

Like a person, who wants to fill his stomach without taking any food in it. He is the sincere devotee of Lalita Devi, who makes the 'Kirtanam' regularly of the Mother-creatix...,

81. नान्यथा प्रीयते देवी कल्पकोटिशतैरपि ।
तस्माद् रहस्यनामानि श्रीमातुः प्रयतः पठेत् ॥

Otherwise, so much of affection can never be had in the millions of 'Kalpas'. Therefore, the recital of the occult Sahasranama of Sri Mata — Mother Creatrix should be performed with care.

82. इति ते कथितं स्तोत्रं रहस्यं कुम्भसम्भव ।
नाविद्यावेदिने ब्रूयान्नाभक्ताय कदाचन ॥

O Kumbhasambhava Agastya! I have thus narrated you the Stotram with Rahasyam, being highly secret. It should not be imparted to any person ignorant of Sri Vidya and to any non-believer, in any circumstance...,

83. यथैव गोप्या श्रीविद्या तथा गोप्यमिदं मुने ।
पशुतुल्येषु न ब्रूयाज्जनेषु स्तोत्रमुत्तामम् ॥

As the knowledge of Sri Vidya is a secret one, so is the secret of this Supreme Stotram as well, O Muni! This Stotra should in no way be told to men, who are just like beasts in their nature and without discrimination.

84. यो ददाति विमूढात्मा श्रीविद्यारहिताय च ।
तस्मै कुप्यन्ति योगिन्यः सोऽनर्थः सुमहान् स्मृतः ॥

Any foolish person who gives the 'Rahasyanama - Sahasram' to any one, not been initiated into Sri Vidya is subjected to Kopa--displeasure of Yoginis and he suffers a lot.

85. रहस्यनामसाहस्रं तस्मात् सङ्गोपयेदिदम् ।
स्वतन्त्रेण मया नोक्तं तवापि कलशोद्भव ॥

This Sahasrama of occult nature, therefore must be learnt by heart O Kalashodbhava — Pot born Agastya! I have not narrated it to you of my own...,

86. ललिताप्रेरणादेव मयोक्तं स्तोत्रमुत्तमम् ।
कीर्तनीयमिदं भक्त्या कुम्भयोने निरन्तरम् ।
तेन तुष्टा महादेवी तवाभीष्टं प्रदास्यति ॥

This Supreme efficacious Stotram has been narrated by me to you under the divine will of Sri Lalita. O of the lineage of Kumbha! Practise the Kirtanam regularly with devotion, and firm will. Thus Maha Devi will confer on you the best of results, you desire for.

आनन्दमग्नहृदयः सद्यः पुलकितोऽभवत् ॥
